

Eagles Nest, New Zealand: ultimate luxury at the end of the world

• 4 Jan, 2010 • Catégorie: New Zealand, One hotel a day, Out of the city, Waterfront •

The Lord of the Rings is finally beginning to disappear from the tourism landscape of New Zealand. The country is dear to the Hobbits, certainly a strange and mysterious land, but it is also a destination where luxury is at peak. The Eagles Nest is a luxurious six villas classified five stars located in Bay of Islands, north of the North Island. Its strength? A 360-degree view of the 144 islands that make up the peninsula.

A view of the priceless beauty: the Eagles Nest offers to live without borders, to forget what separates us from nature, to be in communion with it. The most beautiful villa is the villa Rahimoana, which can accommodate up to eight people. Design, it has in common with the other houses an overflow swimming pool lost between heaven and earth. The white lacquered furniture blends perfectly with the gray sofas and indigo blue. Cool colors perfectly associated with the surrounding nature that can be admired at leisure behind large windows.

Butler, concierge and personal chef, kitchen replenished each day, massage room, Jacuzzi, sauna, Villa Rahimoana represents the ultimate in luxury hotel in New Zealand. The hotel puts at your disposal a Porsche Cayenne to visit the area. An experience to live once in your life, if only to see Bay of Islands, where the sky is bluer than everywhere else.

Rates: 1137€ for the Villa First Light up 9907€ for the Villa Rahimoana. Rates valid until March 31st, 2010.
